TFL Today

Welcome to the idyllic world of the Times Football League, where people never disagree on anything, and everybody gets along perfectly at all times.

You won't find another football league like this anywhere, no sirree.

We head into the regular season's final week with a potential for five teams to finish with 8-6 records. The stakes just don't get any higher than this, folks. If Bagdad beats Flint, they are both 8-6, and if Dutch Harbor and Baltimore lose while Narcoossee wins, all three of them are 8-6.

(Note to reader: stay abreast of TrashTalk for all the action and for a much-awaited, not to mention necessary, commissioner's ruling.)

In next week's newsletter, we'll be presenting a handicapping of the playoffs in a manner as realistic and serious, yet at the same time as humorous, as is humanly possible.

Suffice it to say for now, that Denver is one of the teams to beat, if not the main one, as it seems now, but that we wouldn't count out anybody with a resurgent Jerome Bettis, a surprising Shawn King, or Moss and Carter, all on the same team. We also couldn't count out . . . anybody else who made it, which really says a lot, but hey, we don't even know who made it yet.
